

Greg joined Douglas County Fire District No. 2 as a Division Chief in July 2004 after semi-retiring from the fire service in Tucson, Ariz., after 21 years. He was promoted to the position of Deputy Chief in November 2007. In August 2011, he was promoted to Fire Chief. Greg holds a Bachelors degree in Business Management from the University of Phoenix and has completed the Executive Fire Officer Program administered through the National Fire Academy. He also holds the Chief Fire Officers Designation issued through the Center for Public Safety Excellence.

Greg is an appointed member on the State of Oregon EMS Committee, as well as the State of Oregon Discipline and Certification Committee and the Board on Public Safety Standards and Training (BPSST) representing the Oregon Fire Chiefs Association. He also serves on the Board of Directors for the Oregon Fire Chiefs Association. Additionally, Greg serves on the Douglas County EMS Committee which oversees the local ambulance service areas in Douglas County. He is involved in numerous other committees and organizations throughout the community and is a member of the Oregon and International Fire Chief Associations.

In his spare time, Greg enjoys spending time with his family and traveling with his wife and their dog Chase in their RV. He is a baseball enthusiast and plans to visit every major league ballpark at some point. Greg and his wife have two grown boys.
